

Moon'k Films Devoted Internship Program 2023

About Us- Moon'k Films Devoted Production Studios:

Moon'k Films Devoted Production Studios was created in 2014 by Founder and CEO, Trey Carswell. Being the #1 sought out independent film company in the US. Moon'k Films Devoted Productions Studios is comprised of a team of experts in the fields of both television and movie/film production and have worked on projects across the U.S. and internationally. We have received congressional awards and have even been featured in The Nation's Capital business journal as one of the top 25 production companies and the top 25 business leading companies. We have premiered several full-length feature films, documentaries, film shorts, and promotional visuals across the U.S. and received outstanding reviews for our cinematics, storyline, and presentation.

About Moon'k Films Devoted Internship Program:

Moon'k Films Devoted Production Studios 2023 internship program offers undergraduate and graduate students professional, academic, and career opportunities to study with an organization across the United States. The program features a demanding mix of professional involvement, intellectual challenges, career exploration, and cross-cultural encounters designed to provide students with a rich and varied experience throughout the world of production and film. The defining characteristic of the Moon'k Films Devoted Internship Program is the educational experience, and the opportunity students have to apply their classroom learning to real-life experiences in a variety of professional and film-making settings. Objectives:

The objectives of the Moon'k Films Devoted Internship program are to provide real work experience in a professional production setting via films, cultural events, production set visits, off-the-record conversations with current and former movie stars, group dinners, and suggestions for exploring the sights and sounds of Hollywood. This allows students to not only experience working in the city but also encourages them to appreciate the experience of living in a diverse urban environment and to take advantage of the exciting cultural, educational, and recreational opportunities available around the world.

How to Apply:

Interested undergraduate and graduate students, or recent graduates, are asked to submit the following materials online or via email prior to the application deadline to be considered for acceptance into the Internship Program:

1. Letter of Interest: Applicants must submit a letter where they describe why they are interested in the Moon'k Films Devoted Internship program and how it fits into their academic and career goals, background, experience, and interest in the filming industry.
2. Email Sample: Applicants must compose a short email example. (3-4 sentence minimum)
3. Resume: Applicants must submit a copy of their resume. Most students need only one page for a resume, which should be neatly formatted.
4. Transcripts: Applicants must submit official transcripts for all university-level work. Candidates may submit an additional letter explaining special circumstances that may have contributed to low (under 2.5) or inconsistent GPA or an excessive number of dropped or failed classes.
5. Letters of Recommendation: Applicants must submit two (2) letters of recommendation or have them sent from faculty members or others who know their academic work well. Emailed letters of recommendation must come directly from the faculty member's or other recommender's institutional email account, or they may be rejected. Please send recommendations to workstudy@moonkfilmsdevoted.com

Admittance to the Program:

These students will have the wonderful opportunity to be a part of/work on sets for upcoming projects that vary from feature films, documentaries, short-films, promotional videos, and various events. This program will not only give students a first-hand look at the ins and outs of what goes into creating a full fledged production, but they'll leave with a wealth of knowledge of this industry.
